Elements

Issues in the Self-Study

Continue to monitor and evaluate the freshman profile report for admitted student-athletes and share the results with appropriate campus groups.

Measureable Goals

1. Maintain or improve upon the strength of the academic profile of student-athletes;
2. Communicate the academic profile of student-athletes to relevant campus groups.

Steps to Achieve Goals

Conduct an annual review of the profile report of admitted student-athletes.

Individuals/Officers Responsible for Implementation

Director of Undergraduate Admission, Admission Policy Committee, and FAR.

Specific Timetable for Completing the Work

Annually in September commencing on 2005.

Report results of the review to the Athletic Policy Advisory Committee (APAC), the Faculty Assembly, and the Faculty of Arts and Sciences.

Individuals/Officers Responsible for Implementation

FAR.

Specific Timetable for Completing the Work

Annually as part of annual report to Faculty Assembly commencing in Spring 2005.

Make adjustments, if needed, in admissions process and procedures.

Individuals/Officers Responsible for Implementation

Director of Undergraduate Admission and Admission Policy Committee.

Specific Timetable for Completing the Work

As needed, commencing in 2005.

Continue to monitor and evaluate the graduation rate of student-athletes and increase knowledge of the results.

Measureable Goals

1. Maintain, insofar as possible, a six-year graduation rate approximating that of the general student body and a graduation rate for "athletic committee admits" that approximates the graduation rate for all student-athletes;
2. Communicate graduation rate information to relevant campus groups.

Steps to Achieve Goals

Conduct an annual review of the graduation rate of grant-in-aid student-athletes in general and "committee admits" in particular.

Individuals/Officers Responsible for Implementation

Dean of Undergraduate Studies, FAR, and APAC.

Specific Timetable for Completing the Work

Annually in December commencing in 2005.

Report the results of the review to the Faculty Assembly and the Faculty of Arts and Sciences.

Individuals/Officers Responsible for Implementation

APAC and FAR.

Specific Timetable for Completing the Work

In annual report to Faculty Assembly commencing in Spring of 2005.