ATHLETIC DEPARTMENT AWARDS

Tribe Club Outstanding Senior Athlete Award - awarded to the outstanding senior male and female athlete based on their overall contribution to the athletic program.

Martha Barksdale Award - awarded to a rising senior female scholar/athlete who also possesses strong leadership qualities and has performed with distinction in her sport. Nominations are submitted by the Head Coach in March and nominees must have a minimum cumulative GPA of a 3.25. Individual receives an athletic grant for the senior year of $1,000.

Bruce Davidson Memorial Award - awarded to a rising senior male scholar/athlete who also possesses strong leadership qualities and has performed with distinction in his sport. Nominations are submitted by the Head Coach in March and nominees must have a minimum cumulative GPA of a 3.25. Individual receives an athletic grant for the senior year of approximately $1,000.

Robert Madison Usry Award - awarded to the varsity sport letter winner possessing the highest grade point average at the end of his/her junior year. The recipient must have satisfied 75% of the degree requirements for his or her designated major. Individual receives an athletic grant for the senior year equivalent to the endowment value which is approximately $5,000.

Edward Jewusiak Scholarship - awarded to a student who has been a member of the Sports Medicine staff for at least two years. Must possess strong leadership skills, initiative and conduct themselves in a professional manner both on and off the playing fields. Recipient must have an overall GPA of 2.5+. The recipient receives an individual award of approximately $500.

Presidential Award - awarded to the individual from each sport that best exemplifies citizenship, sportsmanship and leadership—‘person who makes the team tick’. The selection procedure is at the discretion of the Head Coach. Individuals receive a certificate and recognition at the Athletics Department Awards Reception from President Reveley and Terry Driscoll.